

SPRINGWOOD PRIMARY SCHOOL

WHAT ARE WE DOING WELL?

Listening to parents concerns and taking appropriate action. Class assembly was excellent. Home – school communication much better.

Communication is loads better this year.

Treat all pupils with respect.

Happy with everything.

Springwood staff and teachers are good in being amazing in understanding everything related with my child needs.

Happy with everything.

I like the home-school communication – friendly staff.

You do everything good.

Good activities and school clubs.

Swimming every week (smiley face)

Doing better in clubs.

Happy with everything.

I love the way you teach and assign each students with teaching methods. I and the dad definitely see improvement in Aishas learning and behaviour. Thanks a lot Mrs Abbas.

Good communication between school and parents.

You are amazing support and give a pure love to my child, keep improve and develop your work, listening to the parents to achieve the best.

Good communication with all staff, receptions, medical and teachers.

Home / school communications have improved.

Lots of fundraising for school.

Happy with everything.

Great Communication at all times.

Happy with everything.

Communication regarding what my child has been doing at school is really good (smiley face). Website is excellent!!

Happy with everything – (smiley face).

Communicating to parents keeping us up to date i.e. School books, newsletters.

Making Dylan happy and enjoying school.

Treating children with special needs is not easy, keep up the patience. Please may God reward you. Thanks Mrs Abbas.

Keeping parents well informed with the home to school book.

Understanding and guidance of my son.

Bringing the school together as a community – Fantastic new website – The staff appear to be happier.

All good!!! My son loves coming to school and is very settled and happy.

Good communication.

We are all well informed of what is happening to our child.

Absolutely nothing, my son loves coming to school and that's all I could ask for.

I love the after school club swimming, I enjoy seeing my child play with their friends.

Everything great.

Doing well with catering for my son's needs.

Communication, access to chat to teachers, kids love the school.

Great looking after our children – well done (smiley face)

We have been really happy with the new changes in school. Communication and openness with parents have really improved – so far so good – if any problem im confident to raise it.

Keep going.

Loving the food choices for the kids and letting parents know.

Catering for most activities. Enabling the children to benefit.

WELL – Happy with Jacks progress and I know that he's in safe hands.

Keep It Up.

Include all children in all activities.

Lots of good communication between school and home.

Where happy with everything all staff are great.

Everything seems fine.

Everything is going on well.

You are already doing something well by looking after my daughter and educating her – keep up the good work.

I like your website.

You doing well job.

Springwood is such a happy environment, well run, organised school – we are so happy.

Great Job – all round.

Love getting all the info about what the class will be doing each term.

Always let me know how Elyas day has gone.

Supporting my son with his IEP goals, building activities around things he likes.

I love seeing the progression in learning in the school. The staff are also brilliant.

Writing and sharing lots of information about the school day/activities in the home/school book!! (smiley face).

Great communication via home to school book and regular phone calls.
